Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus

I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament

I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul

Since I cannot at this moment
receive You sacramentally,

Come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself
wholly to You

Never permit me to be separated from You.

ST. NICHOLAS THE WONDERWORKER DECEMBER 6th

St. Nicholas was born during the second half of the third century (@ 270 AD) in Patara, in the province of Lycia in Asia Minor. It was part of the Roman Empire at the time of his birth. His parents, Theophan and Nonna, were devout Christians. After his parents' death, Nicholas distributed his inherited wealth with the poor.

In his youth, Nicholas went on a pilgrimage to Egypt and Palestine. Shortly after his return, Nicholas was named Bishop of Myra. During the persecution of Christians under Emperor Diocletian, Nicholas was imprisoned. However, after Constantine was named Emperor, Nicholas was released. In 313 AD, Emperor Constantine had issued the Edict of Milan, granting religious freedom to Christians. The Edict spoke of treating Christians benevolently within the Roman Empire

In 325 AD Bishop Nicholas attended the Council of Nicaea. He and the other bishops from the East defended the Christian faith from the error of Arianism. Arius denied that Jesus was coeternal with the Father .

St. Nicholas even to this day is known for his personality trait of gift-giving. Nicholas had rescued three daughters from a life of loose living. The father could not afford a dowry for any of the three daughters. Each night for three nights, Nicholas dropped a sack of gold through the window – one sack each night for each of the three daughters.

Other accounts about the saintly bishop was that he rescued three innocent men from an impending wrongful execution. Also, the saintly Nicholas had calmed a storm at sea. While travelling aboard ship to the Holy Land, the ship nearly was destroyed during a violent storm. The saintly Nicholas was able to rebuke the waves and calm the sea. The storm subsided.

Shortly after his death, the faithful venerated the saintly bishop. Churches were built in his honor and many parents named their sons "Nicholas." In the Eastern Churches, almost every Thursday at the Divine Liturgy we read a tropar and kondak dedicated to St. Nicholas and all the Apostles. The icon of St. Nicholas is often found on the iconostasis. There he is depicted as an Eastern bishop, wearing an omophor and mitre. Many of our parishes have a program near his Feast Day during which St. Nicholas visits the children and greets them and distributes fruit, candy and small gifts, while those attending sing a special hymn in honor of St. Nicholas praising him for loving and serving us. We ask the saintly Nicholas to always help us in our time of need.

The Conception by St. Anna of the Most Holy Theotokos

December 9th

The parents of Mary, Joachim and Anna were barren (without child) even in their old age. Nonetheless, they besought the Almighty God to grant them a child. For the Hebrews at that time regarded birthgiving and children as a gift from God. They promised God that they would offer their offspring to Him as a gift. The Almighty answered their call with the birth of Mary.

In the Tropar for the Feast, we sing that "Against all hope, the bonds of barrenness are loosed today. For, God has hearkened unto Joachim and Anna clearly promising that they would bear a godly maiden. He who commanded the angel to cry out to her, "Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with you," will be born of her, the infinite One Himself, becoming man." The Kondak for the Feast speaks about the world rejoicing today in the conception of Anna, wrought by God. For she bore the One who beyond comprehension conceived the Logos (the Word of God)
