Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus

I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament

I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul
Since I cannot at this moment

receive You sacramentally,
Come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself
wholly to You

Never permit me to be separated from You.

Stewardship - Using Your Gifts Is an Act of Worship When you use the gifts that God has given you, it is an act of worship. What makes God smile? Some people think God only smiles when you're praying or singing or going to church. The truth is, God smiles when you use the gifts that he's given you. When you're doing what you were wired and shaped to do, it's a pleasing act of worship. When you use your gifts correctly, God gets the glory. And that being said you certainly can't please God with gifts you don't have. God doesn't expect you to be talented or gifted at everything. He just wants and expects you to use what he's given you. Also, there's no feeling in the world like doing something for God's glory, knowing that you're doing what he made you to do. It is the greatest thrill in the world! If you haven't ever felt that, discover and develop the spiritual gifts that are in you so you can enjoy your life and bring glory to God.

The Power of Praise

Do you think of praising God only when things are going well or during times of blessing? So many of us make this mistake. We must learn that praise is appropriate during bad times, too. Honestly, we will never know the true power of praise until we learn its value in our trials. There are many benefits of praising God during trying times. When the circumstances in our lives seem insurmountable, we have a choice to make: we can either dive into the depths of despair or look up and rejoice in the Lord. We can blame others and become angry at God, or we can cry out to the One who is capable of turning our sorrow into joy. Do you need a reason to rejoice today? Praise God, not only for what He is planning for your future, but also for what you can learn from your present situation.

“ You aren't learning anything when you're talking. ”

Quote by Lyndon B Johnson

The Eye is the Lamp of the Body

One summer a tailor toured Europe. Somehow he arranged for a meeting with the Pope. When he returned to work, his friend eagerly asked, "Tell me, what kind of man is the Pope?" He pondered a moment, then answered, "He is a 39 short." It is one of the truths of life that we see as we are. The painter sees the world in colour, the sculptor in form; the musician perceives the world in sound, and the economist in commodities. Show two people the very same painting and each will notice something different in it. Fr. Anthony Coniaris wrote ' ..The eye is the window of the whole body. Eye here means the soul of a person. And we tend to see and hear things not as they are, but as we are. He who is filled with hate sees only hateful people. If we feel insecure inside, other people seem to threaten us. We are constantly judging others by ourselves. The thief is far more suspicious of others than is the honest man.' He tells a story of an ancient king who chose a good man and a bad man from among the people. The good man he said, 'Go out into my kingdom and find an evil man.' The good man searched and searched, but he could find no evil man. To the bad man the king said, 'Go out into the kingdom and find a good man.' The bad man also searched and searched, but he could find no good man. We see as we are. Fr. Coniaris continues, '.. We see that which we have prepared ourselves to see. Why was it that only the Magi Wise Men saw the star? Because, they were the only ones looking for the Saviour. Why was it that only Symeon and Anna recognized Jesus as the Saviour of the world when Mary and Joseph brought the child into the crowded Temple on the fortieth day after His birth? Because only they were expectantly looking for Him? Fr. Anthony retells the story about the famous preacher Henry Ward Beecher. As he greeted people when they exited the church after the worship service. One person said, 'Dr. Beecher, you may be interested to know that I counted a dozen grammatical errors in your sermon this morning? Another worshipper greeted him saying, 'Today, I found God? Both people had listened to the same sermon. Both had found what they were prepared to find. We see as we are. He continues by saying that what is inside is all-important. If we do not have God on the inside, we shall never see Him on the outside. Jesus said, 'Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God? (Mt.5:8) clean. It is your windows that are dirty'. If life looks cloudy, maybe it's our windows that need cleaning. Jesus is always calling on us to keep the windows of the soul clean through daily self-examination, repentance and confession. If we do not, we shall constantly see others, not as they are but as we are. George Bernard Shaw said, 'Better keep yourself clean and bright. You are the window through which you must see the world.'

Prayer for when you don't know what to do

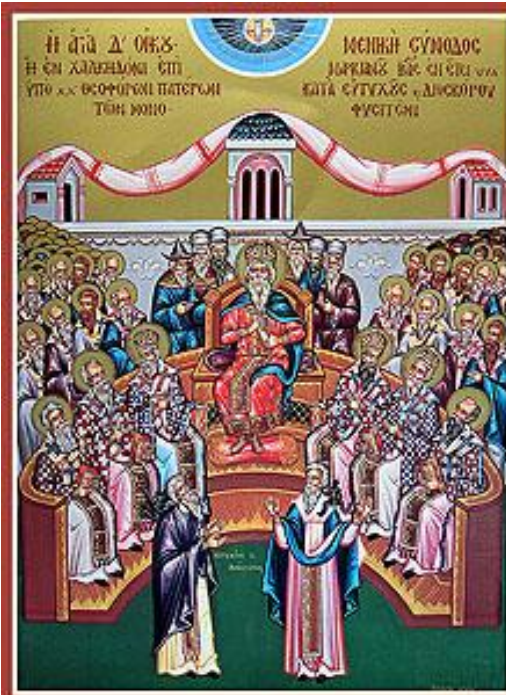

Dear heavenly Lord,
I face situations and decisions.
It's complicated and dense.
I feel confused and lost.
Can you help me?
Can you show me the light?
First of all, oh Lord,
Calm my heart.
Let me know that my peace
Depends upon you alone.
No matter how things turn out,
With you at the center of my life,
I will stand. I will survive.
May your Spirit keep me balanced.
Lord, show me your will.
Let my mind and heart be open
To what best serves truth and life.
Give me courage
To do what is right.
Show me your Word.
Reveal it to my heart, oh Lord.
And make my conviction strong.
For when I go to you,
And you show me your will,
The blessing is guaranteed.
It may not be easy,
It may take time,
But upon Christ I stand firm.
In Jesus name,
Amen.

"VIBRANT PARISH" Prayer

Prayer O Lord Jesus Christ, our Good Shepherd, as You once gathered lost sheep that they might hear Your voice and be Your flock, so also today graciously look down from heaven upon our parish community, and send down on it Your Holy Spirit, that it might be a place to receive the joy of Your Good News. Strengthen us with Your presence, and always gather us together in prayer. Grant us the spirit of serving others, so that in our parish all might encounter You, the merciful God. Bless our spiritual leaders with Your wisdom, and inspire us to generously give of our time, talents and treasure for the building up of Your Kingdom. Unite us in peace and harmony, as befits Your community of love. Instil in us a missionary spirit, and let our parish community shine with the light of the Gospel, with prayer and good works, inviting all to share in the divine life, so that Your Name, O Saviour, may be praised, together with Your eternal Father, and Your most-holy, good and life-giving Spirit. Amen.
