Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus

I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament

I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul

Since I cannot at this moment

receive You sacramentally,

Come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself
wholly to You

Never permit me to be separated from You.

Thank You to the volunteers who helped make the First Solemn Holy Communion celebrations on Saturday, October 24, 2020—a success which was the result of a lot of hard work. A thank you to Martin Pasieczka, Lorraine Lichacz, Shelly & Richard Pidsadny, members of the UCWLC and Joe Kulyk. A special thanks to Fr. John Mostivsky for the church service and Kelly Minsky who donated cup cakes for our five communicants. Also, special presentations were made by UCWLC, Knights of Columbus and the Parish Pastoral Council. With the help of their parents and the Church may the Communicants continue to grow in their faith.

Sin Is the Opposite of God

“Everything he does is good.” Psalm 111:7

When you ask people what sin is, you’ll get a wide range of answers, from murder to forgetting to call your mom on Mother’s Day.

Most of the time, people think of sin as bad behavior. And your bad behaviours often do reveal sin. But the Bible tells us that God pays more attention to our thoughts than our behaviours. Because it’s sinful thinking that leads to sinful behavior.

So what is sin? Sin is the opposite of God. The Bible says, “Everything He does is good,” “He is good to everyone and has compassion on all He made,” and “everything that God has created is good” (Psalm 111:7; Psalm 145:9; 1 Timothy 4:4).

For example, when you use prescription drugs the right way, they can bring helpful relief. But when you misuse and abuse drugs, something good becomes something harmful. Money is neither good nor bad. It can be used for great good, but it also can be used for incredibly bad things.

God expects you to turn from your sins and start walking faithfully toward Him. Part of faith is trusting that God has your best interests in mind. You don’t have to wonder what God is like. The Bible says clearly that He is perfect and sinless.

While you will never be perfect on earth, you can become more like Jesus. This starts by turning away from sin and making choices every day to pursue what is good and godly.

First Solemn Holy Communion October 24, 2020

Communicants received four special cup cakes donated by Kelly Minski

The first time a family member makes their Holy Communion, it is an exciting event for the whole family. The boy or girl preparing for this sacrament is profoundly united with Jesus in a way that they never have before. Our souls become the bride of Christ. That is why girls wear white dresses and boys wear suits.

Three Things to Focus on Instead of Yourself

“Let heaven fill your thoughts; don’t spend your time worrying about things down here.” Colossians 3:2

True freedom comes when you focus your mind on God’s truth. But how do you focus your mind on the right things so you can experience freedom? Here are three things you can do that will make the biggest difference in managing your mind.

First, think about Jesus. Hebrews 12:3 says, “Think about Jesus’ example. He held on while wicked people were doing evil things to him. So do not get tired and stop trying”. What gives you the power to keep on going? You think about Jesus. Keep your mind on who the Bible says He is and the example He’s given you for how to live a life that pleases God.

Second, think about others. “Let us think about each other and help each other to show love and do good deeds” (Hebrews 10:24). Most of the people around the world think about themselves first. So anybody who thinks more about others than they do about themselves is going to shine. When you choose to think about what others may need and how you can help, you’ll find it’s hard to let your problems get you down.

Third, think about eternity. The Bible says in Colossians 3:2, “Let heaven fill your thoughts; don’t spend your time worrying about things down here”. Whatever you’re worried about today is probably not going to matter in five years, much less in eternity. Everything is put into perspective when you think about your life in light of eternity.

Whatever situation you’re facing today, stop and think about what you’re thinking about. Then choose to focus on Jesus, other people, and your home in eternity. It will take the focus off of yourself, which is how God intended for you to live. And it will transform your life!

~Rick Warren
