Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus

I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament

I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul

Since I cannot at this moment

receive You sacramentally,

Come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself
wholly to You

Never permit me to be separated from You.

St. Philip's the Apostle
November 14th

The Feast day of St Phillip the Apostle is celebrated on November 14th in the Ukrainian Catholic Church. It marks the beginning of "Pylypivka" - St Philip's fast commonly known in the Roman Catholic Church as Advent. The period of "Pylypivka" is a time for the faithful to prepare by prayer and fasting for the birth of Jesus. The child born of Mary, coming in human likeness and appearance, humbled Himself, becoming obedient to God the Father to death on the cross (Philippians 2:6-8). At the Last Supper, Phillip asked Jesus, "Master, show us the Father". Jesus said to Him, "Have I been with you so long that you still do not know me?". Whoever has seen me has seen the Father" (John 14:9). During our journey towards Christmas let us make an effort to be a more faithful follower of Jesus.

Religious Training is to be a Living Formation not a Learning of Information

Parents are their child's first and most important and most effective teacher of religion. They need not possess a degree in theology or master catechetical terminology in transferring faith to their child. Role modeling by the parent is the most effective means of transferring faith and teaching the child the importance of God in their life: eg; praying with children at bedtime, in the morning, at special events and especially during COVID. If faith is important to the parent, it will transfer to the child. If faith is superficial and not expressed genuinely, the child will soon recognize that it is not important.

In this time of COVID, it is even more crucial that parents recognize their role in the faith development of their child/children. Since catechism classes at Holy Family are suspended until we see an ultimate end to the epidemic, we have periodically published in the parish bulletin faith topics that can be helpful to parents.

Trying to teach catechism via zoom or other electronic means is unrealistic at this time when children and parents are trying to maneuver through on- line schooling and on- line extra- curricular programs.

We do have a severe shortage of catechism teachers at normal times but the availability of catechism teachers that are willing and able to teach catechism on line is not very promising.

As mentioned previously, Holy Family Parish is happy to provide parents a teacher's manual and a child's textbook at their grade level for at home catechism. Please call the parish office for your request.

Jairus	Peter, John, and James
Years the woman was sick	Fringe of Jesus's garment
How much she spent on doctors	12
Age of Jairus' daughter	Chief of the Synagogue
What the woman touched	12
Jesus said this healed the woman	No one
What Jesus told Jairus to do	"Child, arise"
They went with Jesus	All her living
What Jesus said to Jairus' daughter	"Your faith has made you well"
What Jesus told the parents to do	"Do not fear, only believe"
Jesus said to tell	Give her something to eat

Feast of the Entrance of the Theotokos into the Temple November 21st

We read about the origins of the Feast in the Proto-Evangelium of James. The parents of Mary, Joachim and Anna, were childless, but sought to have children. They made a promise to God that if He granted them a child, they would bring the child to the Temple in Jerusalem to serve the Lord God. At that time the Temple was under the guidance of the High Priest Zachary, the father of the Precursor John the Baptist, and of Simeon.

Mary although in Her youth was filled with joy to enter the Temple and to serve Yahweh (God). Mary continued Her education in the Jewish faith and customs, which her parents had already begun at home. At the Temple, Mary would encounter people and assist them in their need.

This Feast reminds us that we all are to continually seek to develop, grow spiritually – to know our faith and to the practices of our faith. Through prayer an individual unites oneself with God Himself and His way of life, His Kingship over us. We should daily examine our conscience to discern just how much of what we had done that day was pleasing to God.

May the example of Mary the Mother of God inspire us to serve the Lord God faithfully. Let us seek to grow closer daily to the Lord and to recognize the presence of God in others and love Him above all else. This we already do here on earth as to prepare ourselves to live a life of eternal joy with God in heaven.
