Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament
I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul
Since I cannot at this moment
receive You sacramentally, Come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You Never permit me to be separated from You.

Lift Holy Hands Instead of Shaking Fists

"Whenever you stand praying, if you have anything against anyone, forgive him [drop the issue, let it go], so that your Father who is in heaven will also forgive you your transgressions and wrongdoings."
Mark 11:25

How much energy does it take to drop something? Nothing. You just let it go! It doesn't take any energy at all.

Jesus says, "Whenever you stand praying, if you have anything against anyone, forgive him [drop the issue, let it go], so that your Father who is in heaven will also forgive you your transgressions and wrongdoings" (Mark 11:25).

When you let your hurt go, all of that energy you've wasted on hating, resenting, carrying a grudge, and nursing your resentment will be released. Then you can use your energy on more important and constructive projects.

You've got to give your hurt to God. Drop it and let Him carry it for you. God has already volunteered to handle it.

You just say to God, "This hurt is too heavy for me to carry, and I don't know the right thing to do about it. I'll probably make a mess of it! So, God, I'm giving You this hurt. I forgive that person who hurt me, and I would like for You to handle it from here. It's out of my hands now and in yours. Thank you!"

The Bible also says in 1 Timothy 2:8, "I want men to pray with holy hands lifted up to God, free from anger and controversy".

When you're hurt or treated unfairly, instead of complaining to others, communicate with God. Instead of being angry and resentful, worship God for his presence and provision in your life. Stop shaking angry fists and instead raise holy hands to God in prayer.

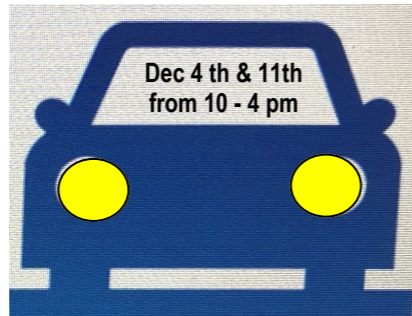

Don't waste any more of your life harbouring anger and resentment toward your enemies. Just drop your hurt at the feet of Jesus, and you'll experience relief and freedom like you've never known before.

~Rick Warren

The Rich Fool depicts the futility of the belief that wealth can secure prosperity or a good life.

When we are blessed financially, we can easily become arrogant and think that we are blessed because we are smarter, better, or just harder working than anyone else. While many of us with computers can see how we have been financially blessed because of our Christian values, we must remember that many Christians in the world today live in very impoverished conditions. Those of us who are blessed with financial wealth — and God's definition of wealth is anyone who has more than the basic necessities of food, clothes, and a place to sleep — have been blessed. This principle goes back to God's call of Abraham and is reiterated by Paul to the Corinthians. Our financial blessings are simply God's way of entrusting us with his money to do his work! We are blessed to be a blessing — not to hoard, gloat, or become self-satisfied.
