Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus

I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament

I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul
Since I cannot at this moment
receive You sacramentally,
Come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You

Never permit me to be separated from You.

Sunday after Theophany

Now when he heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew into Galilee; and leaving Nazareth he went and dwelt in Capernaum by the sea, in the territory of Zebulun and Naphtali, that what was spoken by the prophet Isaiah might be fulfilled: "The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, toward the sea, across the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles—the people who sat in darkness have seen a great light, and for those who sat in the region and shadow of death light has dawned." From that time Jesus began to preach, saying, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." Matthew 4: 12-17 (Gospel of Sunday After Theophany)

The Archeparchy of Winnipeg will be celebrating the birthday of the Archbishop of Winnipeg and Metropolitan Lawrence Huculak on January 25th. ordained to the Priesthood on 28 August 1977. However, twelve years ago he was appointed and installed as the Archbishop of Winnipeg and Metropolitan for Ukrainian Catholics throughout Canada.

Stewards of Commitment

As infants our faith was given to us by our parents. They loved us enough to bring us to God and ask him to give us new life; and we were baptized. As we celebrate the Baptism of Jesus in the Jordan, God is revealed to us. He shows us the way to salvation and like John the Baptizer, he calls to us "Repent for the Kingdom of God is at hand." It may sound like doomsday prophets, but it's not. "Repent" simply means "turning back to God". This Sunday after Theophany we have the opportunity to recommit ourselves to our saying yes to Jesus, saying yes to the cross, saying yes to committing ourselves to carry on the work of love, and mercy, kindness and tolerance that Jesus preached and lived. As we sing "we who are baptized into Christ have put on Christ" may we choose for ourselves the Way, the Truth, and the Life that Jesus offers us as the Son of God.

I asked God,
"Why are You taking me through troubled water?"
He replied,
"Because your enemies can't swim."

I Asked God . . .

I asked God to take away my pain. GOD said, No. It is not for me to take away, but for you to give it up.

I asked God to make my handi-capped child whole. GOD said, No. Her spirit was whole, her body was only temporary.

I asked God to grant me patience. GOD said, No. Patience is a by-product of tribulation. It is not granted, it is earned.

I asked God to give me happiness. GOD said, No. I give you blessings. Happiness is up to you.

I asked God to spare me pain. GOD said, No. Suffering draws you apart from worldly cares and brings you closer to me.

I asked God to make my spirit grow. GOD said, No. You must grow your own, but I will prune you to make you fruitful.

I asked God for all things that I might enjoy life. GOD said, No. I will give you life so that you may enjoy all things.

I asked God to help me LOVE others, as much as he loves me.

GOD said . . . Ahhhh, finally you have the idea.

"Offenses will certainly come." by Joel Osteen

Jesus didn't say that offenses might come to us. He didn't say that if you're kind, if you pray and quote the Scriptures, you'll be exempt from grumpy people and people who cut you off in traffic. He said offenses will certainly come. You will have opportunities on a regular basis to get upset, to argue, to become offended and bitter, and to try to pay people back. That word "offense" comes from a Greek word that means "to bait," referring to the bait that's used to lure animals into a trap. When you're tempted to be offended, when someone is critical, rude, condescending, or says something derogatory to you, recognize that the enemy is trying to deceive you into his trap. He's saying, "Come on, get upset. Argue with them and tell them off." Instead of letting it upset you, say, "No, thanks. I'm not taking the bait. This is just a distraction. I'm going to enjoy this day and keep my peace."

You Can't Change by Accident

Throw off your old sinful nature and your former way of life, which is corrupted by lust and deception.” Ephesians 4:22

Change requires making choices. It's not enough to dream of changing. It's not enough to desire change. In order for you to change, you will need to make a decision. You must choose to change.

Change is intentional: Are you going to be any different in six months? Are you going to be better a year from now? Are you going to be healthier, stronger, and more mature? Are you going to be happier? Are you going to be in less debt? Are you going to be more like God wants you to be?

I can tell you the answer right now: It will only happen if you choose to change, because it isn't going to happen accidentally. You need to think ahead to where you need to be at the end of this year and where you need to be in three years, six years, and a decade from now. I want you to be better in 10 years than you are today, but you won't be unless you choose to be.

Change requires a choice.

A lot of times we think we're waiting on God to change us. No, you are not waiting on God. God is waiting on you! He's waiting on you to say, "Yes, Lord, I'm willing to make these changes."

We have to make intentional choices in order to grow. There is no growth without change, there is no change without loss, and there is no loss without pain. If you are going to grow, you will have to change, and change means you let go of some old things and grab hold of some new things.

It's like swinging on a trapeze: The trapeze artist swings out on one bar, and then she has to reach out and grab the other bar. At some point, she's got to let go of one to grab the other, or she's not going to make it to the other side. If she thinks she can hold on to both, what happens? She gets stuck in the middle, and she's going down.

Perhaps you're stuck in the middle, and you're going down because you haven't let go of old patterns, old habits, and old ways of thinking. You have to let go of your old ways.

The Bible says, "Throw off your old sinful nature and your former way of life" (Ephesians 4:22). In other words, let it go. Those old habits, those old hurts, those old patterns, those old sins in your life—let them go. The Bible says to throw them off and trust that God is working in you "to will and to act in order to fulfill his good purpose" (Philippians 2:13).

How to Fight Darkness with Light

Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.” Romans 12:21 (NIV)

I don't know if there's anything more counter-cultural in the world today than responding to evil with good. And because it's so counter-cultural, it can be one of the hardest things to do.

When there's a bully trying to make trouble in your life, you need to respond positively. “Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good” (Romans 12:21).

That's a step of faith, isn't it? Because everything in you probably wants to overcome evil with evil and fight darkness with more darkness. That's what the world tells you to do: Fight dirty. That's why it takes faith to go against what your flesh and culture are telling you to do and instead trust in God and respond to darkness with his light.

You fight darkness with light. You fight hatred with love. You fight unkindness with kindness. You don't let evil overcome you. You overcome evil with good.

That's tough to do. But it gets even tougher: “Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you” (Matthew 5:44).

Is that easy? No. Is it unusual? Yes. Is it a choice? Absolutely. It's your choice to be better than the bully. Choosing light over darkness means walking the way of Jesus. And Jesus wouldn't just walk away from a fight and forget. He would lay down his life if that's what he needed to do to show how much he loves someone—and that's exactly what he did.

God doesn't want you to retaliate. He also wants you to do good. He wants you to show love to even the hardest hearts by praying for them and asking God to give them hearts like his.

Jesus gave us the greatest example of responding in love and praying for enemies. When you follow his example, you're going to stand out in a world where everyone thinks of themselves first.

Taking the step of faith to overcome evil with good will not always be easy, but it will make you a powerful witness for Jesus.

~Rick Warren
