The Holy Spirit came upon them. (Acts 19:6)

“Holy what?” The disciples when Paul encountered in Ephesus did not know there was a Holy Spirit, or even that Jesus was the Messiah. But when Paul shared the good news and prayed with them, their eyes were opened to the spiritual gifts that were now theirs through Christ.

The Ephesian disciples knew that the Spirit had come upon them because they were able to prophesy and speak in God-given tongues (Acts 19:6). Such manifestation were a sure sign of the Spirit's presence In the early Church, and even today there are believers who experience these “charismatic” gifts (1 Corinthians 12:4-11). While these are two of the more obvious signs of the Spirit, Scripture tells us about the other gifts that we might experience (Isaiah 11:2-3):

- When you prayer for guidance and receive wisdom, that's the Spirit.
- When you are tempted to do or say something rash and you resist by saying a quick Hail Mary, God's Spirit of counsel is Giving you restraint.
- When you are looking for credit for your accomplishments, fear of the Lord reminds you that all your talents come from God.
- When you are confused about Church's teaching on moral issue and you stumble across a product that gives you insight, the Spirit is granting you knowledge and understanding.
- When you are at the end of your rope but keep persevering in faith, you are being filled with fortitude.
- When you are feeling restless at liturgy but a hymn fills you with a sense of God's love, the Spirit is giving you piety.

Pentecost is here, so let us ask the Lord to fill us with even more of His gifts so that we can serve Him and His body. Be sure to ask freely and expectantly. Remember, God “does not ration His gift of the Spirit” (John 3:34). Maybe in this season of your life, you are in special need of fortitude or wisdom. Whatever it is, don't be shy about asking. God wants it for you even more than you do!

“Come upon me, Holy Spirit! Strengthen your gifts within me”

PASTORAL Care Team

Do you know you have a four member Pastoral Care team that is ready to pray with those who request it, visit the sick at home or hospital, visit by phone those who are confined at home to provide social interaction and connection to the parish. We desire to be an active team but we can only do so when we are made aware of the need. We can be reached by phone individually

- Father Volodymyr at 204-475-0928
- Hazel at 204-837-7179
- Linda at 204-895-8478
- Marianne at 204-284-4976

Contact can similarly be made through the Parrish office at 204-453-4653 or by submitting a Pastoral Care Request Card found at the entrance of the church.

We also maintain a list (found in the weekly bulletin) of parishioners who have asked for prayer and we encourage you to intercede on their behalf.

Linda Marak, Pastoral Care Committee Chair

Why Prayer is Important - Prayer holds great importance in the lives of many individuals and religious communities. Here are a few reasons why prayer is considered important:

Guidance and Direction: Prayer can provide guidance and direction in life. It allows individuals to seek wisdom, clarity, and insight from a higher power. Through prayer, people often find comfort, solace, and answers to their questions or dilemmas.

Strength and Support: Prayer is a source of strength and support during challenging times. It offers comfort, encouragement, and a sense of peace in difficult situations. Prayer can provide the strength to overcome obstacles, face adversity, and find inner peace amidst life's trials and tribulations.

Gratitude and Reflection: Prayer allows individuals to express gratitude for blessings and reflect upon their lives. It encourages a mindset of gratitude, humility, and appreciation for the things one has. Prayer helps individuals focus on the positive aspects of life and cultivate a sense of contentment and thankfulness.

Transformation and Personal Growth: Prayer has the power to bring about personal transformation and growth. It can inspire individuals to develop virtues such as patience, forgiveness, compassion, and love. Prayer provides an opportunity for self-reflection, introspection, and a deeper understanding of oneself.

Prayer universally serves as a means of connection, guidance, strength, gratitude, personal growth, community, and healing.
