Sunday of the Fathers of the Seventh Ecumenical Council

The Seventh Ecumenical Council, also known as the Second Council of Nicaea, was held in 787 AD. Its main lesson revolved around the use of Icons in Christian worship. The council affirmed the legitimacy of Icons, arguing that they serve as valuable tools for teaching and inspiring the faithful, and that veneration of Icons is distinct from worship, which is due to God alone.

The Council addressed the controversy surrounding iconoclasm, the rejection or destruction of religious images. By upholding the use of Icons, the council emphasized the importance of tradition in the church, the significance of visual representation in faith, and the belief that Icons can convey theological truths and foster a deeper spiritual connection for believers. This Council ultimately reinforced the role of the Church in defining and safeguarding doctrine and practice in Christianity.

From Our Catechism... Angels In Holy Scripture

Angels manifest the presence of God in the world, announcing to human beings the will of God. Holy Scripture refers to some of them by name: Michael (see Rev. 12:7; Jude 1:9), Raphael (see Tob. 12:15), Gabriel (see Lk. 1: 19, 26). Angels assist human beings in their spiritual growth (see Heb. 1:14). The Tradition of the Church teaches that God grants every human being a guardian angel: "You appointed angels as guardians." The unity of visible and invisible creation -- human beings and angels -- becomes manifest in the Divine Liturgy, where the earthly expresses the heavenly, and humans serve together with angels: "Let us who mystically represent the cherubim and sing the Thrice-holy Hymn to the life giving Trinity..." and "Holy, holy, holy, Lord of Sabbaoth, heaven and earth are full of your glory! Hosanna in the highest! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord." Catechism of the Ukrainian Catholic Church: Christ Our

What Does “Greek Catholic”

Mean? The term ‘Greek Catholic’ was originally coined by Empress Maria Theresa of the Austro-Hungarian Empire, to designate those Catholics who followed the ‘Greek’ or ‘Byzantine’ tradition and liturgy. It had nothing to do with Greek ethnicity, just as ‘Roman Catholics’ don’t have to come from Rome! The Church of Kyiv united with Rome, the Ukrainian Greek Catholic Church, is one of the Eastern Churches belonging to the ‘Greek’ or ‘Byzantine’ family of Churches. The faithful of the Byzantine, or Greek, Churches in communion with Rome are collectively referred to as ‘Greek Catholics’ (especially in their countries of origin, e.g. Ukraine)

PASTORAL Care Team

Do you know you have a four member Pastoral Care Team that is ready to pray with those who request it, visit the sick at home or hospital, visit by phone those who are confined at home to provide social interaction and connection to the parish. We desire to be an active team but we can only do so when we are made aware of the need. We can be reached by phone individually:

- Father Volodymyr at 204-475-0928
- Hazel at 204-837-7179
- Linda at 204-895-8478
- Marianne at 204-284-4976

Contact can similarly be made through the parish office at 204-453-4653 or by submitting a Pastoral Care Request Card found in the narthex. We also maintain a list (found in the bulletin) of parishioners who have asked for prayer and we encourage you to intercede on their behalf
