Happy Mother's Day

to all the wonderful mothers in our parish community!

On this special day, we give thanks to God for the gift of mothers, whose love reflects His compassion and care. Through your kindness, strength, devotion, and faith, you bring blessings to your families and to our Church community.

May your days be filled with joy, peace, and the warmth of those you love, today and always. Through the intercession and loving protection of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the perfect model of motherhood, may you receive many graces and blessings. Thank you for the countless sacrifices you make and for the faithful, selfless love you share each day.

Многая літа to all mothers! Многая літа всім матерям!

CCCB PRESIDENT AND VICE PRESIDENT
MEET WITH THE PRIME MINISTER OF CANADA

On Friday, 1 May 2026, the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops (CCCB) President, Bishop Pierre Goudreault, and the CCCB Vice President, Archbishop Donald Bolen, met with Prime Minister Mark Carney in his office on Parliament Hill. They were accompanied by the CCCB General Secretary, Rev. Jean Vézina, and the CCCB Advisor for Indigenous and Government Relations, Mrs. Tracy Blain.

The CCCB has a responsibility to contribute to public life in Canada in a spirit of dialogue by communicating the concerns of the Bishops and the Catholic faithful, informed by the Gospel and the Church's social teaching. In a pluralistic and secular society, the Church's mission encourages engagement with elected officials, fostering mutual understanding and trust to identify shared values and objectives for the common good. At a time of important changes in Canada and amid current global uncertainty, the meeting offered an opportunity to raise awareness of the social impact of public policy. Topics included Canada's reduction of international humanitarian aid, world peace, and the need to remain attentive to those who are most vulnerable: the poor, the marginalized, and those who are terminally ill and at the end of life.

The CCCB remains committed to contributing to public discussions on legislation and policy in a manner rooted in the Gospel, attentive to the common good, and respectful of the constitutional rights of all Canadians, including those whose lives are guided by religious convictions. The CCCB Presidency is grateful to the Prime Minister for his time and looks forward to future opportunities for constructive engagement with him and other parliamentarians.

FIRST COMMUNION WEEKEND MAY 1ST, 2ND AND 3RD

On Saturday, May 2nd, 2026, the Level 2 students received their First Holy Confession and made Communion Bread with Paulette and Leonard Terrick.

On Sunday, May 3rd, 2026, the children received their First Solemn Holy Communion, the most sacred body and blood of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ in a solemn manner from Rev. Fr. Volodymyr Bashutskyy.

We pray that our Lord graces them with His love as we welcomed them fully into God's Holy Family. "Let the Children Come to Me" Matthew 19:14

Thank you to Level 2 Catechist Natalia Holovetska and Fr.Volodymyr Bashutskyy for teaching and preparing the children for their First Holy Confession and First Solemn Holy Communion.

Thank you to Paulette and Leonard Terrick for your instruction in making Communion Bread.

Thank you to Martin Pasieczka, photographer.

Thank you to the parents for homeschooling when unable to attend Liturgy and classes.

Thank you everyone who made this past weekend special for our Level 2 Children.

Lorraine Lichacz,
Catechism Coordinator
Level 2 Catechist

WHEN GOD CREATED MOTHERS

When the Good Lord was creating mothers, He was into His sixth day of "overtime" when the angel appeared and said "You're doing a lot of fiddling around on this one."

And God said, "Have you read the specs on this order? She has to be completely washable, but not plastic. Have 180 moveable parts...all replaceable...Run on black coffee and leftovers... Have a lap that disappears when she stands up... A kiss that can cure anything from a broken leg to a disappointed love affair...And six pairs of hands."

The angel shook her head slowly and said, "Six pairs of hands? No way."

"It's not the hands that are causing me problems", God remarked, "it's the three pairs of eyes that mothers have to have."

"That's on the standard model?", asked the angel. God nodded.

"One pair that sees through closed doors when she asks, "What are you kids doing in there?" - when she already knows. Another here in the back of her head that sees what she shouldn't but what she has to know, and of course the ones here in front that can look at a child when he goofs up and say. "I understand and I love you" without so much as uttering a word."

"God", said the angel touching his sleeve gently, "Get some rest tomorrow..."

"I can't," said God, "I'm so close to creating something so close to myself. Already I have one who heals herself when she is sick...can feed a family of six on one pound of hamburger...and can get a nine year old to stand under a shower."

The angel circled the model of a mother very slowly. "It's too soft," she sighed.

"But tough!", said God excitedly. "You can't imagine what this mother can do or endure."

"Can it think?"

"Not only can it think, but it can reason and compromise," said the Creator.

Finally, the angel bent over and ran her finger across the cheek.

"There's a leak," she pronounced. "I told You that You were trying to put too much into this model"

"It's not a leak", said the Lord, "It's a tear."

"What's it for?"

"It's for joy, sadness, disappointment, pain, loneliness, and pride."

"You are a genius," said the angel.

Somberly, God said, "I didn't put it there"

"It will certainly be the marvel of the creation", replied the angel.

"It is a matter of fact", said the Lord. "I am so proud of it that I am going to make one for my Son. I am going to call her Mary"
