Upcoming Special Offerings / Найближчі особливі пожертви

October 18: Holy Spirit Seminary Offering

Catechetical Sunday

September 20, 2026

The theme for Catechetical Sunday is
“The Spirit of the Lord is upon me... to bring good news to the poor”
(Luke 4:18; cf. Isaiah 61:1).

Christ the Teacher

The mission of Jesus is clearly proclaimed in Lk. 4:18. He speaks about proclaiming good news to the poor, care and compassion for the suffering.
His words are a call to action, love outpoured.

As we begin another catechetical year in our parish, it is a special day to bless our volunteer catechists and assistants who pass on the faith.

The importance of religious education, faith formation at all age levels cannot be overemphasized. Special prayers will be included in the Divine Liturgy and blessings given to those who feel called to teach, parents, grandparents and guardians who are helping to build up the body of Christ.

St. John Chrysostom said, “What is equal to training the soul and forming the mind of one that is young?” Nothing! The need for soul formation is as prominent today as it was when St. John Chrysostom asked the question in the fourth century. Today all those who are involved in faith formation are present to pray together and be blessed at the start of a new catechetical year. We pray for the Spirit of the Lord be with them in this important ministry and God grant them many happy and blessed years.

May God grant them many happy and blessed years!
